Which of the following forms of the government is better for Hungary?

- Having liberal democracy with regular elections and multiparty system: 81%
- Having a strong and decisive leader who does not have to bother with parliament or elections: 12%

Insecurities

Who threatens your identity and values?

- Migrants: 52% (Yes, they do), 46% (No, they don’t)
- LGBTI: 30% (Yes, they do), 67% (No, they don’t)
- Western societies and their way of living: 23% (Yes, they do), 76% (No, they don’t)
- European Union: 22% (Yes, they do), 75% (No, they don’t)
- United States of America: 21% (Yes, they do), 77% (No, they don’t)

Belief in conspiracies among the whole population and Fidesz voters

- Jews have too much power and secretly control governments and institutions around the world: 49% (of the whole sample), 75% (of Fidesz voters)
- EU and Brussels dictates to Hungary what to do without Hungary having a chance to influence it: 38% (of the whole sample), 75% (of Fidesz voters)
- The anti-government protests in the past years were orchestrated and financially supported by George Soros: 49% (of the whole sample), 91% (of Fidesz voters)
- The non-governmental organizations in Hungary are secret voice of foreign powers and interests: 27% (of the whole sample), 49% (of Fidesz voters)

*n = cca 272