Which of the following forms of government is, according to you, better for your country?

- Having liberal democracy with regular elections and multiparty system: 66%
- Having a strong and decisive leader who does not have to bother with parliament or elections: 26%

Poles are among the strongest supporters of liberal democracy in the region after Austria and Hungary.

47% of Poles believe that the media in their country are not free, the highest figure in the region. And 33% of responders trust mainstream media.

A significant percentage Poles are willing to trade basic freedoms for other benefits.

- For better financial situation: 38%
  - 53% in Eastern Poland
  - 34% in Southern Poland
- For greater security: 45%
  - 61% with primary education
- For preservation of values: 39%
  - 30% with university education

Satisfaction-dissatisfaction with how democracy works in Poland also shows a clear division between supporters of the ruling party and the opposition, with the former presenting significantly more positive opinion on the present status of democracy.

Who threatens your identity and values?

- Migrants: 41%
- LGBT: 25%
- Western societies: 23%

Belief in conspiracy theories and misinformation.

- Believe that “Solidarity” made a deal with the communists in 1989, and Poland is still ruled by the people who were in power during the communism era: 48%
- Believe that the EU and Brussels dictate to Poland what to do without Poland having a chance to influence it: 43%
- Believe that Jews have too much power and secretly control governments and institutions around the world: 38%